

Follow the Faithful

Hebrews 13:7-14

Prepare your heart and mind for worship on Sunday, December 9, 2018, each day this week, with the following (RTYB'18= Read Through Your Bible in 2018):

Monday, December 3 Hebrews 13:7

- What should you remember about your spiritual leaders?
- What should you imitate from Pastor Ike's life?

-RTYB'18 – Romans 1-3; and pray for the Forrer family today.

Tuesday, December 4 Hebrews 13:8

- Memorize this verse. Read also Malachi 3:6. What does "God changes in order to remain changeless" mean?

-RTYB'18 – Romans 4-5; and pray for the Frase family today.

Wednesday, December 5 Hebrews 13:9

- Read 1 Cor. 8:8 and 1 Timothy 4:1-5. Are there things You have been taught that are in conflict with the Bible?

-RTYB'18 – Romans 6-8; and pray for the Bob Geiser family today.

Thursday, December 6 Hebrews 13:10

- Of what sacrifice in the Old Testament could the priests not eat? Clue: it happened on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16).

-RTYB'18 – Romans 9-11; and pray for the Olin Geiser family today.

Friday, December 7 Hebrews 13:11-12

- Why were the sacrifices burned outside the camp?
- What is the connection of this verse to verse 12, then?

-RTYB'18 – Romans 12-16; and pray for the Gold family today.

Saturday, December 8 Hebrews 13:13

- What did this mean to the original readers of this letter?
- What application does it have for us? Cf. Heb. 12:18-29).

-RTYB'18 – Acts 20-22; and pray for the Ike Graham family today.

Sunday, December 9 Hebrews 13:14

- Are you? Are you seeking the city to come (Revelation 21)?
- Is seeking that city more important than seeking a better job?

-RTYB'18 – Psalms 138-140; and pray for the Nathan Graham family today.
